

ESL Conversation Questions - Pets and Animals

By Steven Saunders

Do you have any pets? Tell us about them.	Do you have a dog? If so, do you allow your dog to sit on the sofa?
Are vets expensive in your country?	Are there animal rights groups in your country?
Do you own any unusual pets? Do you know anybody that does?	What is your favorite animal? Why?
If you could be any animal, which one would you be?	What would you do if you saw somebody beating up an animal in the street?
What animals do you think are the most scariest?	What wild animals can be seen in your country?
Some animal rights groups think that livestock should not be transported long distances while they are still alive. What do you think?	What do you think about animal testing?
Can you name some extinct animals? What effect do you think the extinction of certain animals will have on us and the way we live our lives?	Do you think that people who abuse animals should be punished? If so, in what way?
Have you ever ridden a horse?	Are there any animals that you are afraid of?
Is there any kind of meat that you would not eat?	What do you think about people that eat dog meat?
Have you ever been bitten by an animal?	What do you think about wearing animal furs?

ESL Conversation Questions \(index\)

© 2004 These ESL Conversation Questions are the work of Steven Saunders,

